PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant and set a Revocation Hearing to show cause why Supervised Release should not be revoked.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1 Failure to Report Change in Residence

On or about October 29, 2023, David Mata left his last known place of residence located at Downtown Rescue Mission, 1400 Evangel Drive, Huntsville Alabama, and failed to notify U.S. Probation Officer Matthew Worboys within 72 hours of his change in residence.

Details: On October 4, 2023, David Mata was released on bond with the Madison County Circuit Court and instructed to remain in Madison County pending the disposition of his state charge. Mr. Mata was instructed to live with his mother at her known residence in Huntsville, Alabama for the duration of his case. On October 9, 2023, David Mata reported that he had moved to the Downtown Rescue Mission Shelter located at 1400 Evangel Drive, Huntsville, Alabama, due to a tumultuous relationship with his mother. On October 13, 2013, Mr. Mata reported to the U.S. Probation Office where his conditions of supervision were reviewed and acknowledged. He reported on this same date that he was still residing at the Downtown Rescue Mission. On November 3, 2023, U.S. Probation Officer Matthew Worboys in the Northern District of Alabama attempted to conduct a home visit at the offender's residence located at Downtown Rescue Mission, 1400 Evangel Drive, Huntsville Alabama. During this attempted visit, it was discovered that Mr. Mata last stayed at this shelter on October 26, 2023, as verified by the facility security director. The facility had no information as to another address for him. Attempts to locate Mr. Mata in the community have been unsuccessful and his whereabouts are currently unknown.

2 Failure to Abide by Drug Treatment Program's Rules and Regulations

Details: On October 13, 2023, David Mata reported to the U.S. Probation Office in Huntsville, Alabama where he was instructed to participate for drug testing as required through random color-code in the Northern District of Alabama. David Mata violated the rules and regulations of the color-code drug testing by failing to submit random urine specimens on October 18, 2023, and October 30, 2023.
